Minister's Column

March is the month that Jackson County has its "Big Read," and our church often joins in with events. The Big Read is a community-wide program sponsored by the Jackson District Library and funded by the National Endowment for the Arts where the community is invited to read one book, this year Ursula K. LeGuin's A Wizard of Earthsea. Our church, as we have done most years, is holding a forum on the Big Read, as well as a worship service and book discussion. As someone who loves fantasy and science fiction, I was excited about this year's book, one I had read and enjoyed before. I've previously done sermons on such subjects as Harry Potter, Star Wars, and The Golden Compass. One interesting aspect of LeGuin's novel is that she draws not from the usual European mythology to set her fantasy kingdom, but instead sets it in a Polynesian-inspired fantasy archipelago, and immerses it in the principles of Taoism. I'm looking forward to the challenge of preaching on this unique fantasy work. But for those who don't enjoy fantasy as much as I do, there is also our "First Friday Dinner," the continuation of our "Sources" series in worship, and the continuation of our food drive for the Brooklyn Food Pantry.

March also kicks off our pledge drive, which can provide opportunities for newcomers to learn about our organization and mission. We'll be having a kick-off event during social hour on March 14th, which will be a great opportunity to hear more about our vision for the upcoming year, and to share your vision for the church. Our theme this year is "Grounded in Love." Each board member, when we came up with this theme, had a different image of what this meant to them. Personally, it reminds me of our closing song which says, "Go, may love's presence ever guide you..." I was recently struck by the importance of love in our closing song. Our former minister Ruth Smith told me that she had found this verse in a denominational publication and she changed the word "God" to "love." And what a difference love makes! Holding Love out as our guiding principle, that which leads us in all our actions, is a wonderful mission for our church. It grounds us in our faith.

Peace,
Cindy

Religious Education Report

February is a favorite month in RE, what with "Church Buddies" and Valentine's Day and the like. Attendance has still been strong, and kids have enjoyed the "Wonderful Welcome" curriculum. The youth have learned a lot about Islam in their class, with help from a good video and excellent, resourceful teachers. On Feb. 28 they have a speaker scheduled who is a part of the Muslim community—and just back from doing medical work in Haiti.

An unofficial rule is now official – WALK, PLEASE, ON THE RAMP! This is posted at the bottom of the ramp, so parents, please help reinforce this with children, for safety's sake, and so we can all hear better in the social hall. Also, a reminder to kids not to run in the parking lot – also for safety.

Thanks to Steve Kish for donating the television and VCR. The TV is set up in the social hall now has a great picture for showing DVDs and videos, for instance. Thanks also to Paul Jenkins and others for setting the new TV up.

Watch for the RE fundraiser in March – and please support it, as you are able. I hope many of you will take the sales forms to work, friends and neighbors also, to help support the RE program.

I will be out of town for the March 14 service. Our RE Greeter that day will be Michelle Vanover.

RE Sunday is March 28. At this service, the K-5 class will share what it has been learning this year, and I think you'll like what you see. Youth will share more about their curricula at the end of the RE "school year."

We thank you for your support of the religious education program.

IUUv,

Sharon

Religious Education Coordinator

Notes from the Board

The Board of Trustees generally meets monthly on the first Wednesday. During our last meeting we discussed parking lot conditions in winter months. We are all concerned with the safety and well-being of our members and visitors. More than a few of us have fallen or had close calls on the packed snow and accumulated ice. While we try to keep steps and doorways clean, the gravel lot does present a challenge. The board is actively considering longer-term options to improve conditions, including re-grading and/or paving. In the meantime, we ask members and visitors to seek assistance when needed. We are grateful that so many of you have offered to give others a hand.

I also wanted to thank all the members and friends who supported the holiday fundraisers by purchasing wreaths and greeting cards. The church succeeded in earning about $550, which was more than the board had anticipated. If you see Grace Mulnix, be sure to let her know how much you liked her daughter's church photograph on the greeting card. We mistakenly identified the photographer, so we express our gratitude for the donation of the picture during a prior auction, which we copied for the cards' production.

Lastly, keep this date: March 14, 2010. You are invited to the annual kick-off for the pledge campaign. We'll have a brief presentation and hands-on activity during social hour that afternoon. This year's theme, "Grounded in Love", reminds us how our connections to this religious community ground us spiritually, emotionally, and even physically. We will not ask you to make a pledge during the kick-off. Rather, your canvasser will contact you shortly after that day to accept your pledge. Please respond to him or her by March 28 so the board can prepare the next fiscal year's budget in time for the annual meeting this spring.

Respectfully submitted by;
Kerry Hart, Treasurer

Letter from the Editors

Starting with the March issue the Bellnote Newsletter will have a new look! Instead of creating two

Bellnotes, one that is on our webpage and is public, and one with more personal information that goes to our members, we will be creating one public newsletter. Subscribers to the Bellnote will receive a Bellnote Supplement with the birthdays, anniversaries, joys & sorrows, and any additional phone numbers & email addresses that go with some articles.

An email will be sent to the on-line readers with the supplement information. The paper copy readers will be getting an extra "supplement page" with that information. Please remember that our newsletter is a public document and, when you submit an article, please indicate if any phone numbers or e-mails in it should be removed from the public newsletter. If so, the phone numbers and e-mails will be added to the supplement page with reference to page # and title of article.

We also make a new "Bellnote News in Brief." This month's issue will be our seventh; it is a double-sided one-page newsletter. It is used for the CommUnity ForUms, visitor packets, and other U.U. ministers who subscribe, and a few extra copies are left at the church. Thanks for reading from the Editors, and Yes, it will be much easier than what we have been doing in the past, and the church web page version will have a better over-all look to it!

Sabbatical Information

UU ministers stay an average of eight years in any given congregation. The average tenure of ministers in our congregation since 1876 has been 4.7, and the average since 1961, including both Ruth Smith's 20-year tenure and our interim ministers, has been 4.6 years. In fact, in the short time I've been a member here, we've had four ministers! I don't know the reasons for this. Perhaps it's burnout, with the responsibilities of preaching, pastoral care for the congregation, managing church administration, fulfilling commitments to our district and the UUA, as well as being our spokesperson in the community. I was shocked to find that in her five and a half years with us, the Rev. Cindy has written over 170 different sermons! That's a lot of writing!

We are blessed in our congregation that the Rev. Cindy is committed to staying with us beyond the five and a half years she has been here. The sabbatical allows her relief from her regular duties and time for spiritual renewal so she can return to us with fresh perspective and energy. It is a small price to pay for the benefits we will reap.

"Why Fantasy Literature is Good for Children (and Adults Too)!"

Steve Vander Ark will lead a discussion of fantasy literature as part of March's "Big Read" focus on Ursula LeGuin's A Wizard of Earthsea. Books like A Wizard of Earthsea and the Harry Potter Series often come under attack because of their inclusion of magic and wizardry. The Community Forum will address some of these issues as well as the positive effects of reading fantasy literature on children and adults, such as imagination and insight.

Mr. Vander Ark is a public speaker on works of fantasy and the author of The Lexicon and In Search of Harry Potter, and creator and editor of the "Harry Potter Lexicon" website. Vander Ark has been interviewed by the Today Show, A&E, the BBC, the New Yorker and the Guardian. A former school media specialist living in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Vander Ark has been honored by fans of the series who appreciate his insights into the Potter books. The Association for Library Services for Children, a division of the American Library Association, has named the Lexicon website one of 15 "Great Web Sites For Kids."

Thursday, April 15, CommUnity ForUm the topice will be on "Going Native"

Does your backyard have what it takes to attract birds, butterflies, and more? Learn the benefits of native plants in our landscape from naturalist Gary Siegrist of The Dahlem Conservancy. At least 5000 alien plant species have been introduced to the United States, either intentionally or by accident. Explore with Gary why it is so important to incorporate native alternatives into our yards and landscapes.

Standing on the Side of Love

The "Standing on the Side of Love" banner which I ordered from the SSL (pronounced "sizzle") campaign has arrived, and we'll try to find a time to display it at church soon for you to see. The banner can be used for parades (either for marching with or on a float), hanging on the building inside or out, displaying at events like picnics or anywhere we have a booth for our church. Our board has voted to accept the donation of this banner and we will be discussing and voting on how to best display it at our annual meeting.

All Sunday Services Start at 11:00 am ~ Celebrating Over 150 Years of Liberal Religion

Mar. 7 - "This I Believe"

- Lynn Hightower- Lay Leader

This is the fifth of our "This I believe" series. Four members of our church will tell us what they believe about the 'big question' of life and how those beliefs affect their daily lives.

Mar. 14 - "UU Sources Series: Jewish and Christian Teachings "

- Rev. Dr. Cynthia L. Landrum, Minister

Our UU Sources say that we draw from "Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves." This service will explore why these are sources we draw religious inspiration from and how they enrich our faith.

This Sunday we will also have one of our quarterly collections for the Social Mission agencies voted on by the congregation.

Mar. 21 - " Big Read Sunday"

- Rev. Cynthia L. Landrum, Minister

The Tao and LeGuin – Ursula LeGuin's A Wizard of Earthsea, which is this year's book for the Jackson Big Read, is heavily influenced by the faith of Taoism. What can we learn of Taoism through LeGuin's work? Oh, and I promise there will be something about dragons...

This service will be followed by a book discussion during the social hour

Mar. 28 - "RE Sunday"

- Sharon Pedersen - Lay Leader

At this service, the K-5 children will share what they've learned so far this year, and we think you'll like what you see. A guest speaker will talk about child development. (Note: the youth will have class today.)
